Tim Didier Meats built on the power of a dream

Dreams are wonderful motivators, and Tim Didier had long dreamed of owning his own store.

In 1964 at the tender age of 10, Tim started working in his father's meat market, and the thought crossed his mind more than once that maybe one day he might follow in his father Marshall's footsteps. And follow he did.

Fast forward to 1983. Hoemig's Market was for sale and Tim and his wife Janet jumped at the opportunity to make their dream a reality.

After operating the little neighborhood grocery on Huffman Avenue for eight years, Tim and Janet realized they needed to expand and in 1991 they opened at its present location at 3205 N. Wells St.

"When we started on Wells Street we had just a handful of small restaurants and three employees," Tim recalls. Since then they have grown into a multi-faceted, state-inspected, custom meat purveyor, serving more than 400 restaurants, hospitals and nursing homes in the northeast quadrant of Indiana. All of their meat products are cut fresh daily from a supply of USDA Choice beef, all-natural pork and all-natural poultry.

Getting to where they are now has taken much hard work. Tim and Janet agree that the secret to their success has been their focus to make customers their "most important product."

"We value customer loyalty," says Janet, "and we do everything in our power to give our customers the best quality meat and prompt, friendly service. We are always willing to go the extra mile for our customers." Tim and Janet are assisted in their mission by 20 faithful, hard-working employees. "We couldn't do what we do without them," Tim says.

Tim and Janet are forever grateful for the success they have had. And though they have grown since their early days on Huffman Avenue, they still value their roots. "We still have many faithful retail customers who want that special cut of steak, or that seasoned prime rib for Christmas. And we are only too happy to get it for them." And so the dream continues.

"With hard work and faith in God, we are blessed to be where we are. We love what we do!"
